PERREAULT HONORED AS ONE OF THE UP AND COMING LAWYERS FROM THE WISCONSIN LAW JOURNAL

MADISON/MILWAUKEE, WI (August 11, 2009) – The Wisconsin Law Journal, committed to providing information on the latest in news for lawyers and judges, honored Michele L. Perreault of DeWitt Ross & Stevens during its inaugural “Up and Coming Lawyers” event in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on July 30, 2009. The 2009 honorees are on the fast track to making a significant impact on the legal profession. They represent determination – in legal work and in improving their own law firms.

The candidates were chosen not just for their initiative and zeal for the practice of law, but also for their commitment to their communities and the impact they can make on the lives of those around them.

Ms. Perreault is an associate at DeWitt Ross & Stevens, S.C. in Madison where she has a practice in family law, civil litigation and serving as city attorney for Fitchburg and Brooklyn. She was recently recognized as the State Bar of Wisconsin’s Attorney Hotline Volunteer of the Year. She also volunteers by serving on the board of directors for the Fair Wisconsin, involved with the Domestic Abuse Intervention Services and has volunteered with the Coalition Against Domestic Violence.

DeWitt Ross & Stevens S.C. is a full service law firm with offices in Madison and Metro Milwaukee. Named by readers as one of the top law firms in the state, DeWitt Ross & Stevens has more than 85 attorneys who prevent or resolve problems affecting businesses, individuals and families.
