Three DeWitt Ross & Stevens Attorneys Named Wisconsin Super Lawyer
by National Publication

MADISON, WI (May 4, 2009)—The national magazine Super Lawyers has selected Donald L. Bach, Todd E. Palmer and Timm P. Speerschneider, for inclusion in the May issue of Super Lawyers, Corporate Counsel Edition, for their work in Environmental Law. Only five percent of the lawyers in the state are named by Super Lawyers.

Selection for Wisconsin Super Lawyers involves peer nominations, a panel-review process, and independent research. Nominations from lawyers in other law firms carried more weight than nominations from lawyers in the same law firm. Each candidate's record was reviewed to assure good standing with the Wisconsin Supreme Court.

Law & Politics publishes Super Lawyers magazines across the country. In 2009, Super Lawyers will reach more than 13 million readers. All Super Lawyers are listed on the web site www.superlawyers.com.

DeWitt Ross & Stevens, S.C., is one of the top Wisconsin law firms with over 85 attorneys. The firm has offices in Madison and in Metro Milwaukee. DeWitt Ross & Stevens is known for its work in several areas including corporate and family-owned businesses, employment, environment, government relations, litigation, real estate, tax, estate planning, family, personal injury, patents, trademarks, and copyright law.
