Howard Schoenfeld Named One of the Top 100 Trial Lawyers in Wisconsin for the Fourth Year in a Row

MILWAUKEE — The Madison and Milwaukee based law firm of DeWitt Ross & Stevens S.C. today announced that Howard B. Schoenfeld was again named as one of the top 100 trial lawyers in Wisconsin by The National Trial Lawyers Association.

Schoenfeld, who earned his law degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School, has an established track record of winning for over thirty years in both state and federal court. His litigation expertise includes civil rights, complex business and construction litigation, as well as personal injury and professional liability litigation.

Membership in The National Trial Lawyers Association is by invitation only and is extended only to those attorneys who exemplify superior qualifications, trial results, leadership, influence, and reputation in the community of trial lawyers as viewed by members of the bench, members of The National Trial Lawyers Association, the public and other trial lawyers.

The association is a professional organization which includes America's top trial lawyers. Its purpose is to offer practical educational programs, networking opportunities and legal publications to its members about current issues facing trial lawyers.

DeWitt Ross & Stevens S.C. is one of the top ten law firms in Wisconsin and the largest Madison based law firm. It has nearly 90 attorneys practicing in Madison and Metropolitan Milwaukee in a variety of legal areas and has the experience to service clients of all scopes and sizes. The firm is known for its work in several areas, including corporate and family-owned businesses, employment, environmental, employee benefits, government relations, health care, litigation, real estate, tax, estate planning, family law, personal injury, intellectual property, patents, trademarks and copyright law.
